

BARBARA L. ATWELL

Pace Law School
78 North Broadway
White Plains, NY 10603
914-422-4257
batwell@law.pace.edu

EMPLOYMENT

Legal

PACE UNIVERSITY SCHOOL OF LAW, White Plains, NY. Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion (2009 – present); Associate Professor (1990-present) (tenured 1992)); Director Health Law & Policy Program 2001 – 2005; Assistant Professor of Law (1986 – 1990).

Academic experience:

Classes taught: Bioethics and Medical Malpractice, Introduction to Health Law, Regulation of Health Care Professionals, Elder Law, Public Health Law, Constitutional Law Seminar (focused on freedom of religion), Contracts, Torts, Labor Law, Commercial Law-Sales, Great Migrations, Advanced Appellate Advocacy, Legal Skills I and II, Poverty Law.

Administrative experience:

Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion -- I work with all law school departments, including Admissions, Student Services, and Career Development to further the ideal of creating an inclusive community. I assist student organizations with programming and events, and am available to faculty, staff, students and alumni to assist and support quality of life, curricular innovations, job opportunities, fellowships and all other issues pertaining to diversity. I also serve on faculty committees, and have worked with alumni and bar associations to further diversity awareness. Jeh Johnson, Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security and Dr. Robin Smith

Undergraduate

SMITH COLLEGE, Northampton MA. Bachelor of Arts. May 1977. (Economics).

Activities: House President (Tyler House)
Gold Key Guide

Membership: Alumnae Association of Smith College

